The Playing Field

Welcome Joanne and Rick, to Simpaticos, an analysis of your relationship, through the use of a unique tool, the Composite Chart. This is a type of chart that astrologers use to get an overview of a partnership. It is constructed by using the midpoints between each of your individual charts. The Composite Chart is a Blueprint that represents a symbolic meeting place of your shared mental, physical, emotional and spiritual chemistry.

Have you wondered why the two of you find it easier to agree on some topics and experience distance when trying to discuss others? This report will likely touch on some areas where you might need insight.

There are no perfect relationships. We can strive to make our interactions with others more productive and meaningful. The pages that follow will describe places of harmony in your relationship. It will also point to places of potential conflict. You will notice that some descriptions will appear to contradict each other. Astrology offers a lens through which to view a wide variety of ways to express ourselves in order to make better use of our vast resources.

Relationships are made more from the fabric of a verb, rather than that of a noun. They are in a continuous process of becoming. You will eventually have changing expectations of one another. Your individual search for growth and new direction is rewarding and yet can create tension. It is important to find ways to make room for your individual needs. Nothing truly stays the same. Perhaps this report will inspire the two of you to find ways to mentally stay on the same page. Communication is so vital in clearly relating to each other.

Romantic love is a powerful belief system in modern day society. Some people have even compared it to a religion. Our faith goes out to another person. Romance charges a relationship with more emotional intensity than any other type of partnership. Many of our hopes and dreams are invested in finding a soul mate.

We seek happiness in a lover. How can such a simple thing get so complicated? It's that each of us has our own definition of happiness.

This report could create new options. Relax. It is not intended to judge either of you. Pause if something makes you take a deep look at yourself or your partner. Each of us is really a student of life when it comes to relationships. Learning how to communicate and to truly hear the mind and heart of another person is a life long quest. Remember that you are not alone when it comes to understanding how to better handle your human relations.

Joanne and Rick, try to let your eyes scan the pages that follow with an open mind. Perhaps you will be stimulated into taking a refreshing look at one another!

Happy Navigating!

The Players: The 10 Planets

Part One: The Lead Roles

The Sun

The Sun is the center of our solar system. It generously shares its radiance with the other planets. In Astrology, the Sun is the heart of the chart. It points to ways that your relationship needs to confidently shine. Keep the fires of your Sun burning brightly and proudly together. Love will follow. Happiness will fill your minds, bodies and souls. The Sun stands for ego needs, will power and creative vitality.

Forget your own Sun signs for the moment, Joanne and Rick

Your shared Sun sign could be different than your individual Sun signs. Remember that we are talking about your combined Sun. It is the fusion of your two hearts.

Sun in Taurus

A Sign is a psychological process through which a planet operates. As a couple, being solarized through the sign Taurus paints your relationship with a desire to seek earthly pleasures and treasures. Seeking comfort is probably a mutual desire. You can establish an alliance colored with a love accentuated with a natural closeness. The keyword phrase for Taurus in traditional astrology is "I have." There is a promise of making key acquisitions together.

A desire to give to each other generously can stimulate trust. A show of affection and genuine caring will encourage a mutual sense of support for each other. A shared sense of emotional and physical wealth makes mutual trust possible. Each of you needs to have some degree of control over the finances. This will probably help maintain the peace. Money can be a touchy issue.

Show an appreciation for what is most valuable to each other. Allowing one another to feel valued fosters an enjoyable bond. Bathe in experiences that make both of you feel successful. Encourage your partner to travel on the highways of life that offer creative fulfillment. Trying new experiences is good for you as individuals and as a couple. A life with little leisure can disrupt the natural flow of your relationship. Though too much time in a slow lane offering little stimulation, can lead to a lost sense of closeness.

Enjoy being together but don't try to own each other! You need not desert your personal goals. The more at ease you are as individuals, the richer is your time together.

Learn when it is best to be stubbornly determined, and when to flow with a new course of action. Respond to your partner's need for change. Tune into the special ways each of you needs to feel loved. Share your experiences of art, music and sunrises. Worry not if each of you needs some time alone to pursue your own interests.

Your creative vitality will lead you to flow with the rhythm of your relationship. There is a sensual passion that naturally emanates in your liaison. Honor the need for individual expressions of work, beauty or self-actualization. Life will then reward you both--honest!

Sun in the Ninth House

Eclectic insights are your calling card. You don't care to waste time on dull moments--do you? Your hearts grow warmer when thinking about spending your money on travel and other adventures. Accepting most philosophies of the world comes naturally, as long as you are not expected to follow any one of them too dogmatically. You may become very devoted to a cause or belief that completely captures your imagination. The two of you love to be inspired.

Sharing a similar value system is possible. Where there are differences, don't judge one another. There is plenty of opportunity to find common ground. You will find a dream or two that must be fulfilled as individuals no matter how close in spirit you feel.

There is a great desire to seek knowledge. It is the excitement of learning that turns you on. Sharing your insights with each other stimulates cooperation. People can be moved by the enthusiasm with which you generate. Your luck and optimism can make others jealous.

It is okay to disagree once in a while. Communication will point the way back to harmony. Try to allow for differences of opinion. A narrow vision will tend to alienate.

When you feel bored, do something about it! Take a trip, go camping, buy a new book or go to the midnight movie.

Learn to focus. It is easy to find yourselves going in too many directions at once! Don't worry. Neither of you is meant for heavy routine.

Let go to an eager anticipation of the future. The pursuit of new challenges is calling to you from just over the horizon. Wandering the endless paths of each other's restless imagination can lead to surprising growth.

The Moon

Countless song lyrics, poems and lofty dreams have been inspired through gazing at the Moon. The Moon's sign and house position represents the intimacy and feelings you share with each other. Establishing a sense of security and a home are other lunar sides of life. The Moon symbolizes the imagination you share from your inner landscapes.

Moon in Virgo

With your relationship Lunarized through the sign Virgo, you share an allegiance to the work ethic. You probably believe there is no sense in doing a job if you are not going to give it your best effort. You can possess a keen awareness of each other's emotions. Concern for each other's health is endearing. There can be a strong interest in diet and staying physically fit. Exercise sure is a big help in working off nervous energies.

A sharing of practical skills and know-how is something you can do for each other. You can enjoy taking workshops or classes together. Learning how to integrate your knowledge can pay dividends. You can be helpful in giving your partner business advice. Don't be in a hurry to give your critique of the other's job performances unless you do so delicately. Criticism could be taken the wrong way if delivered insensitively.

Be sure to rest at home, as well as work on projects. Learning to share household responsibilities makes you feel you are part of the same team. Creating order where you live probably is good for your mental health.

Have you grown tired of waiting for your partner to be perfect? Neither one of you will ever be free from making a mistake. Keep your expectations reasonable. You can't do the impossible. The two of you are conscientious about fulfilling your obligations. Others will appreciate your sincerity in taking responsibility seriously.

Beware of becoming a workaholic. There is a temptation to push yourselves endlessly until a project is completed. Being too attached to endless details can produce a lot of working overtime. Be sure to make time for fun experiences.

Let your imaginations guide you to support each other's desire for growth. Listen with an open ear and communicate with an open heart. This will keep you fond of each other.

Moon in the Twelfth House

Your feelings flow back and forth powerfully. When first meeting you could have felt like you could see right into each other's minds. Did you wonder if you already knew each other? At times you can almost speak without using any words.

A strong spiritual connection is possible. Your belief systems can have much common ground. You could easily find yourselves championing a special mission or cause together. Working in the healing or helping professions could appeal to you both. There is a talent for art and music in your lives.

Romance is something you tend to cherish. Going to each other's favorite places is enjoyable. You both probably like to think you will never lead uneventful lives. A bit of intrigue and mystery never hurts anything.

Your home is a refuge or escape for you both. Tranquillity is a must. The type of music, art or possessions you find meaningful must fill your residence. You may like to display items that hold special symbolic meaning. People visiting your home may be moved by its uplifting presence. The two of you don't care for stress here. You will do almost anything to make it go away.

Everyday life will flow better if you have a clear sense of reality. Your idealism will be tested. Your faith in each other and your beliefs can get you through just about anything. Don't give up your dreams if they are slow in manifesting.

A natural compassion for each other helps sort out your differences. Do not try to rescue one another from the lessons you need to learn.

Keep expectations realistic. Setting individual or relationship standards too high can create disappointment. The idea is to continue enjoying each other. This will not happen constantly. Accept the ups and downs.

Let your intuition guide you to walk together with sober eyes. You can be a lighthouse for each other, shining radiantly in the night, as the ship of your dreams is trying to land safely.

The Ascendant

We are taking a short intermission from the planets to introduce you to an additional key part of your relationship. The Ascendant or Rising Sign is the sign that starts the 1st house of the chart. The Ascendant is one of the twelve signs with a special role serving as an ambassador. It acts as a persona or mask for an individual or a relationship. The Ascendant is the personality through which we interact with the world.

The Ascendant is the way we appear to others. It is their first impressions of us. You meet someone and he or she seems to be confident, shy, talkative, cheerful, etc. The same can be said for a couple. The two people might seem theatrical, dreamy, or businesslike.

Ascendant in Virgo

People can see the two of you as hard working and conscientious. You are worried about doing things right. There is a serious demeanor in your personalities. You like to establish a bit of routine to maintain a sense of order. Cleanliness may be next to godliness in your opinion. Work and career are motivating forces. Putting your energies into joint projects gives you a sense of camaraderie. You prefer others to act responsibly as you expect this from yourselves. Health and diet are probably mutual concerns. Efficiency is valued. Your dependability makes others appreciate you.

The Part of Fortune

Your Sun, Moon and Ascendant can be combined or blended into a cosmic alchemy, known as the Part of Fortune. This is not a planet, but rather a reference point in the chart. The Arabian astrologers of the Middle Ages are given credit for its discovery. The Part of Fortune is said to show where we can expect to find good fortune and even luck. Do we really need to take a look at something from the long ago past, if it will serve as nothing more than a relic to hang on the wall? A translation of this ancient symbol into modern terms makes this symbol worth investigating. Why? Because it can give clues to special paths that lead to harmony and a spirit of feeling united.

Think of the Part of Fortune as the potential corridor leading to Opportunity. It is a way to read the pulse rate of the partnership, indicating ways to reach a shared sense of fulfillment.

Part of Fortune in Capricorn

Rising to positions of power, or creating circumstances that give you a sense of being in control, allows you to feel more at ease. You can climb to high places together. The commitment you establish can be deep, and appear invincible. Career aspirations are probably important to your happiness. A willingness to be patient to realize the full completion of a strategy is within the framework of your relationship. You rejoice in each milestone. One or both of you cherish certain traditions. You both will be called upon to lead. It is here that your destiny can be smiled upon by good fortune.

Part of Fortune in the Fourth House

The closeness between you is special. It can be painful or frustrating when there is great emotional distance. You have a capacity to establish a wonderful intimacy. There is tranquillity and self-assurance when it feels like you are receiving adequate emotional support from one another. Your relationship gives you a sense of roots and security. Your intuition will sometimes put its ear to the ground and hear the footsteps of an opportunity coming, long before the gaze of your minds. Good luck comes when you are nurturing the paths that mirror the real you.

Part Two: The Supporting Cast

Mercury

Are you curious about the way the two of you communicate? In this section are Mercury's sign and house placements, showing some of your favorite communication tendencies. There is a tendency for you to grow too expansive. Be sure to stay focused on your main objectives.

Your minds are probably never still for very long. Communication reminds you both that there are no limits in your creative pursuits. You can lead each other to brave new worlds to explore. Your mental pursuits can be many. One or both of you might make a good writer, teacher, consultant or public speaker. Stay away from hasty judgments. It is stimulating to share insights found through books, the Internet, television or radio.

Traveling to adventurous places gives you momentum. Routine is okay for a while. Eventually you need to do something exciting. Exile boredom from your daily lives as soon as possible.

You can share a similar philosophy about the world. Your values are not that far apart. Your faith in each other can get you to leap over tall buildings. Risk-taking is good for the spirit. Be patient before impulsively taking a chance on an idea that is a true long shot. You both can exude feistiness in fighting for your principles.

Venus

You bring out a drive in each other to be masters of your own destiny. The two of you really are not comfortable leaning on others for support. An exception will be a close ally that knows you almost as well as your companion. It might have been a little scary when you first met. Why? Because you probably sensed you were in the presence of someone with a capacity to get to know you on the deepest of levels. Expect your emotions to grow more intense. The passion on a scale of one to ten is an eleven! The trust in this liaison has to be earned. The deeper your commitment, the more real it will become. This is not a relationship that likes to live on the surface of life. You instill a yearning in each other to deepen your personal power.

You are a couple that can obtain whatever is focused upon. There is great consistency to work toward your conception of wealth. Your possessions can reflect your intense desire to succeed. It will unlock some problems.

The two of you might encounter jealousy from others. Your happiness can bother those not seeing themselves as fortunate. Your partner, best friends and family will be enough support. Treat your lover as an equal, and you will find more harmony.

Mars

The ancients considered Mars the god of war. The warrior planet can translate into heated exchanges with each other. Mars arouses Passion in the form of sex, anger or a desire to forge ahead as a swash buckling couple. Mars is still the ruler of combat. It points to the primal competitive instincts embedded deep within each of us. In modern terms, this fiery red planet's sign and house placement are associated with assertion and acting on impulse.

Mars in Taurus

You will likely come to see that some stability is good for your mind and body. You both are motivated by opportunities that rekindle your creative drives and that could lead to increased wealth.

Jupiter

The largest planet in the sky is Jupiter. This happy-go-lucky cosmic giant is more than twice the size of all the other planets put together. Jupiter spins on its axis with great enthusiasm, doing this faster than any other planet. Jupiter's sign and house denote themes related to learning, optimism, travel, philosophical beliefs, luck and generosity. Inspiration that flows between two people can be traced to our good-natured friend in the sky.

Jupiter in Sagittarius

You seek inspiration through acting spontaneously on your beliefs. Being world travelers is a natural tendency. There is a love of learning. You bring out the philosopher and student in one another. People with limited thinking probably test your patience. Honesty and principles are highly valued. Your spiritual makeups can be a solidifying force. Surrendering to discipline is easier when you both enjoy and see meaning in the purpose of your actions.

A sense of happiness and expansive growth occur when you share your life with others. You are more citizens of the world than any country or nationality. People are moved by the confidence exuded by your relationship.

Jupiter in the Third House

An eagerness to move in multiple directions. Does this sound like the two of you? New ideas are constantly going through your minds. You influence your partner to think in terms of greater possibilities. Options are forever in front of your eyes. Worrying about yesterday is probably not much of a problem. The two of you can quickly reinvent a new vision for your future to better match your latest insights. Expanding your mental horizons is a challenge you likely take personally. You are a very convincing couple when it comes to promoting your concepts. You can talk people into getting interested in your beliefs. Even sales is a possible vehicle for your communication talents. Though you must truly believe in what you are offering for others to be moved to buy.

You don't mind talking about morals or justice. Being avid readers and keeping up with current events gives you plenty of ammunition in which to discuss most subjects. Watch the bragging. You might find yourselves exaggerating just how good you both are at doing something. Arguing with each other to prove you are right will produce no winner. Conversation goes better between you when you allow for differing perspectives. You can find plenty of shared philosophic territory to explore together.

You are naturally optimistic. It is your mental self-assuredness that creates new opportunities. People warm up to your genuine interest in them.

Saturn

Astronomers say that if Saturn fell from the sky it is light enough to float on an ocean. Some people dread hearing about where Saturn is in their chart more than they do going to the dentist! The fortune tellers of old always painted this planet with "heavy" interpretations. They presented this planet as being a god of doom and gloom. In modern astrology, this motif denotes endurance and ambition. In mythology, Saturn was Chronos, the god of time, reflecting the wisdom that can be learned from past experiences. You could say Saturn is a "Cosmic Chiropractor", showing adjustments needing to be made along life's way. There can be frustration in repeating the same mistakes. Saturn's sign and house themes are associated with Commitment and Reality-Testing. The two of you may find clues here about how you define your relationship roles. Career drive is a Saturn hallmark. Saturn shadows are fear, rigidity and a need to be compulsively controlling. There is no longevity without partners dealing with the symbolism of this particular celestial wanderer. With a lot of practice and patience the two of you can get good in making this side of your relationship flow--honest! Saturn can become more a god of Success!

Saturn in Taurus

You are smooth and graceful in working together. Taking care of practical concerns will normally run like clockwork. Your slow and methodological approach to getting a job done gets results. Neither of you cares much for stress provoking situations. People probably see you as a reliable couple. Friends and loved ones prefer your shoulders to lean on during their times of personal crisis.

You believe in making money the old-fashioned way by earning it. Each of you needs to have your opinions about money recognized. There will be tension if you don't. Patience takes you far together. Investments that start small can snowball into profit in future years. You have noses that can sniff out where to put your savings to let it mature handsomely. It could be frustrating if one of you wants to take more of a risk, and the other doesn't. A carefully laid out strategy that involves taking a chance could be a good thing.

Talent in creating or collecting beautiful items can be exhibited. Each of you can get very attached to possessions. Respecting what your partner values is endearing. You can share a love of well-designed landscapes. Owning land can be enjoyable. A fondness for peaceful surrounds can be a mutual desire.

Experience teaches you to how to negotiate with your partner. Stubbornness is a tendency when either of you feels slighted. When your commitment is based on an equal give-and-take, you feel like two lovers meant for each other.

Saturn in the Ninth House

You can be a pragmatic pair. Your minds often have a shared vision that gets results. Be careful when you pull in opposing directions. When putting a plan into action, you may want the same thing, but it might appear differently. There is a need to exert your independence in making decisions. You can agree on the big picture, but have unique ways of filling in the details. Being open to your partner's values makes communication more flowing. You can show one another how to make your ideals a reality.

It will grow frustrating if you block your partner's momentum to pursue a serious ambition. Be supportive as it ensures more harmony. There is a dedication to your highest beliefs that impresses others. Education may be a vehicle to create better job opportunities.

Helping one another to gain greater focus on major objectives is wise. Having too few or too many options can present a problem. Seeing the lighter side helps maintain a broader perspective. Romantic escapes keep your passion alive.

Uranus

Try to visualize a maverick planet orbiting on its side, whereas the other planets sit straight up and down. Uranus! This planet was discovered in the eighteenth century, sandwiched in between the American and French Revolutions. Is it any great wonder that this planet's sign and house occupations show our individuality and innovative ideas? Experimentation. Inventiveness. These are two more themes of this exciting and trend-setting entity. What is the down side to this rebel? A tendency in exhibiting a sarcastic tongue in your everyday communication. Launching sudden irresponsible actions will not make you feel like friends. Uranus can be the source of enjoying the refreshing insights you bring to your partnership. Part Three: Planetary Aspects

It's time now to mention another technical side of your report. (If you don't like technical explanations, skip right to the Aspect Interpretations). You have already been introduced to the ten planets. Certain planetary pairs in your chart have a special relationship to one another due to particular angular distances separating them, known as aspects. You could almost say the two planets in an aspect travel and interact together along the same circuit. The following aspect interpretations or descriptions will be listed under five types. Two are known as the soft aspects: the sextile (60 degrees) and trine (120 degrees). These two aspects generally point to more gentle themes found in your relationship. They indicate a lower voltage of electricity and produce less friction. The planets involved in a trine or sextile are more likely to be areas where you flow together without much effort.

The more hard or intense aspects are the conjunction (0 degrees), square (90 degrees) and opposition (180 degrees). They require our understanding and will point to key ways the two of you must communicate and negotiate. Planets that are part of an intense aspect will show how you energize one another. These higher voltage aspects don't mean you want to avoid them, but more so to develop a true understanding of how to use this energy constructively. "Soft" does not mean good and "intense" does not imply bad. It is often the more intense aspects that deepen the bond of a partnership. The interpretation of any planetary aspect depends greatly on the symbolism of the two planets forming an aspect.

It might be helpful to keep some key words in mind for the aspects. The sextile is a promise of Excitement and Eagerness. The planets in this aspect give clues how your energies support one another. The trine is a special Harmony shown by two planets. There is often positive regard for one another that comes spontaneously. We expect good things to be delivered in the trine.

The conjunction is where two planets are joined at the hip. There is a Fusion or powerful blending of these two energies. The square can reveal where you will encounter Friction in your relationship. Pay special attention to these aspects, as they are opportunities for growth as much as discord. The opposition requires a Balancing act. It is similar to a seesaw. Each of you may find yourselves taking turns in acting out one planet or the other.

It might be helpful to refer to Parts One and Two to refresh your memory about the meaning of the Planets, Ascendant and Midheaven, as you read the aspects that follow. Remember that it is usually the more intense aspects that stretch us the most. The more positively you use these challenging planetary combinations the greater will be your understanding of each other.

Note that a planet might be involved in several different aspects. In other words, the planet is interfacing its energies with numerous other planets (or even with the Ascendant or Midheaven). A "heavily aspected planet" plays a key role in your relating to each other.

Maybe it was a charismatic smile, the way you could talk, a physical attraction, or a shared sense of values. There is a multitude of possibilities you could name. The Nodes of the Moon are not planets. They are a celestial polarity offering clues to your connection on the soul level. Think of it as your own "psychic friends network." If this sounds too mystical or corny, just think of the Nodes as a shared frequency level in your partnership. It doesn't mean you get psychic flashes about each other. Much of this link between your minds is probably on a subconscious level. The Nodes usually play an active part in our closest relationships. The longer we are in a relationship with a particular person, the more these two energies come into our conscious awareness.
